

---

Lesson II (Continued) : Using the Glassware

---

Moving on to glassware, with the beverages to be served throughout the meal, we again start with the outer most glass and move inward. The first course beverage glass is on the farthest right and the second course glass is to its left and so on.

The water goblet is immediately above the knife to the right of the dinner plate. The champagne flute may be found to the rear of the glasses.

